RESOURCE AND REFERRAL GUIDE

Sexual Harassment/Misconduct,
Dating/Domestic Violence, and Stalking

Seek an Advocate - 24 Hour Assistance

DVIP/RVAP (Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Crisis Services): (800) 373-1043 or (800) 228-1625

Monsoon Asians and Pacific Islanders in Solidarity: (866) 881-4641

Nisaa African Family Services: (844) 269-6203

An advocate can confidentially answer questions, provide information about options, and help with safety planning.

Complainants have a right to include an advocate as an advisor in meetings with university administrators, medical personnel, and in court proceedings.

Make a Complaint or Consult About Options and Resources

Office of Civil Rights Compliance - Title IX (OCRC-TIX): (319) 335-6200

Individuals may choose to take action under criminal statutes and/or University policies.

The criminal and administrative processes are separate, but can be pursued concurrently.

For more information about your rights, visit "Complainant's Rights" at <https://ocrc.uiowa.edu/sexual-misconduct/sexual-misconduct-resources-and-support#Complainant-Resources>

UI Confidential Resources

University Counseling Service (UCS): (319) 335-7294

Office of the Ombudsperson: (319) 335-3608

Employee Assistance Program (EAP): (319) 335-2085

Research suggests that individuals who work with a counselor or advisor heal more quickly and experience less postsecondary trauma.

Request Supportive Measures

Office of Civil Rights Compliance - Title IX (OCRC-TIX): (319) 335-6200

Supportive measures can be requested without filing a formal complaint.

- Housing change
- Class reassignment
- Mutual no-contact directive
- Extension on an assignment
- Facilitate requests regarding student financial aid
- Workplace or schedule adjustment
- Non-disciplinary coaching conversation with Respondent
- Immigration or visa assistance
- Others, based on situation

Make a Criminal Complaint or Ask for Safety Assistance

Emergency: 911

Non-Emergency: On Campus

Seek Medical Assistance

UIHC Campus Emergency
Dept: (319) 356-2233

UIHC Downtown Emergency
Dept: (319) 339-3600

A sexual assault medical exam ensures:

1. Physical injuries that may have occurred are promptly identified and addressed.
2. Individuals receive medication for prevention of pregnancy and STIs.
3. Evidence is collected by a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner and preserved for a criminal investigation or University complaint now or in the future.

For information about preserving evidence, visit "Explore Resolution Options" at ocrc.uiowa.edu/sexual-misconduct/sexual-misconduct-resources-and-support#Complainant-Resources
